

SAT at Malaspina University-College, Nanaimo Campus 2007/08

SAT I is a three-hour 45 minute test that measures verbal and mathematical reasoning skills. Many colleges and universities in USA use the SAT as one indicator of a student's readiness to do college-level work.

SAT II are subject tests, one-hour long and multiple-choice, that measure knowledge on a particular academic subject. Most colleges and universities in USA require or recommend one or more of the Subject Tests along with the SAT I. There are 22 SAT II Subject Tests that fall into five general areas: English, Math, History, Science and Languages.

Students may register for SAT I or up to 3 SAT II Subject Tests per sitting.
